Registration will start at 7:30 p.m. at the Marina Pavilion. Walkers will be challenged to walk 10 kilometers, or 6.2 miles. For more information or registration forms, call The Sun at 996-4404.

Monday last day to register

Jackie Winchester, Supervisor of Elections, is advising all potential voters that there will be numerous sites around the county where one may register to vote.

Locally, residents can register at the Glades Office Building on SR 15. The courthouse will be open for voter registration between the hours of 8:30 a.m. and 5 p.m.

Police looking for information

Belle Glade Police are seeking information about a murder that happened last Saturday night.

Det. Sgt. Michael Johnson said about 1:30 a.m. Sept. 26 he and Officer K.P. Fisher responded to a call about a shooting. The incident happened at 653 Southwest 5th Street, Belle Glade.

When they arrived, Officer Fisher found Alexander Bulgin, 30, laying in his yard. He had been shot more than once.

Mr. Bulgin was treated at the scene and then taken to Glades General Hospital where he died from his injuries.

Det. Johnson said a suspect has been identified but the case is still under investigation and charges are expected.

Anyone with information about this case is asked to contact the Belle Glade Police Department Criminal Investigation Division at 996-7251.

Thieves are caught - farmers now sifting through recovered property

"They were dumb," said Det. Sgt. John Russ with the Palm Beach County Sheriff's Office.

Det. Russ said the three men arrested for burglarizing farm shops in the Glades dumped several thousand dollars worth of Round-up from 30-gallon drums and filled them with stolen, marked gasoline worth 60 cents a gallon.

Round-up is a herbicide used to kill weeds. "But I guess they knew what they were doing though because they kept some of the Round-up and used the gasoline for their own personal use," he said.

Farmers in the Glades should be glad to hear that arrests have been made in the rash of farm burglaries in the past few months.

Three men, Richardo Renteria, 21, Rosedo Tamayo, 21 and Hector Canizares, 19 are in jail this week charged with burglary and possession of burglary tools. Renteria has no known permanent address. Tamayo lives at 1632 NE Ave. J, Belle Glade and Canizares at 1675 NW 11th Street, Belle Glade.

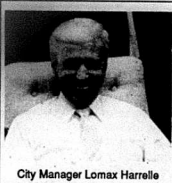

The three men were caught after they allegedly attempted to burglarize Hundley Farms on SR 80.

Sheriff's Det. Steve Haller said the men entered Hundley Farms in a truck after tampering with the lock at the main gate.

After rummaging around the offices and shop,

NAACP asks for the resignation of Belle Glade's city manager

City Manager Lomax Harrelle

By Brenda Bunting

SUN Editor

Citing insensitivity to the black community, the Glades Area Branch of the NAACP is calling for the resignation of Belle Glade's City Manager Lomax Harrelle.

Interim Branch President Larry Konchellah, in a news conference last Saturday said Mr. Harrelle practices discrimination in hiring and does not consult the city's Black leadership on crucial issues.

He referred to the hiring of Jim Humphrey, who is white, to fill the vacant assistant city manager position approximately two years ago when several black applicants were available.

When the position came open again six months ago, Mr. Konchellah was one of the applicants.

The position was given to a white female, Sue Teets, even though Mr. Konchellah said there were again more qualified African-American applicants.

Mr. Harrelle defended his choice at the time, saying "Mrs. Teets measures up as an outstanding candidate for the position."

"The City of Belle Glade, and its citizens, are fortunate to have a person of this caliber in their employment."

"The opportunity to fill a vacancy with a candidate that is so thoroughly qualified and who has so proven her skills locally is a rare occasion for city government," he added.

Mr. Konchellah also criticized the city's lack of black department heads or assistants.

"In fact, there is only one African-American in a major professional position within the City of Belle Glade," he said.

"...because of Mr. Harrelle's clear and blatant prejudice in his hiring practices, he has chosen not to include African-Americans in the running of the affairs of the city."

"Mr. Harrelle has not implemented and neither will he adhere to an Affirmative Action Program," said Konchellah.

In calling for the city manager's resignation, Mr. Konchellah noted the Glades suffers from a lack of year-round jobs. He said he feels Mr.

Ninety of the city's 240 employees signed a petition in support of Lomax Harrelle, Belle Glade's City Manager.

The petition was presented to the City Commission at the Sept. 28 meeting by Ed Lowrey, Administrator of Community Development.

The board of the Glades Branch of the NAACP has called for the resignation of the city manager. They say he has been insensitive to the black community and discriminatory in his hiring practices.

"We publicly and enthusiastically express our support of this great city, our form of government and our City Commission," Mr. Lowrey read from the petition.

"We publicly express our unwavering and unquestionable support of City Manager Lomax Harrelle and the administration of this city," he went on to read.

After reading the petition, Mr. Lowrey said "In attempting to do a tough job we have been maligned, ridiculed, put upon and called names."

"I'll be damned if I'll continue to sit back and work 5, 6, 7 days a week and put up with

Larry Konchellah applies for citizenship

By Brenda Bunting

SUN Editor

Larry Konchellah, interim President of the Glades Branch of the NAACP, has applied for U.S. citizenship.

Mr. Konchellah, a native of Kenya, South Africa, has lived in Belle Glade for 18 years. He applied for citizenship four weeks ago.

"This is not an issue," said Mr. Konchellah, when asked about his citizenship, "and I hope you're not going to make an issue out of it."

He says he hopes to become an American citizen in the next few months.

"I've been struggling with this," he said. "I just made the decision this year. My wife and kids are here. I found myself more and more involved in the civic organizations and I care."

Youth group wants old PHS site for recreation

A letter and other documents received from the Palm Beach County School Board indicate the school board is willing to let the city renovate and use the old Pahokee High School buildings, according to City Manager Ken Schenck.

Mr. Schenck presented the information to commissioners at last Tuesday's regular City Commission meeting.

A local citizens group has been seeking to use the school's gym and other buildings for youth recreation. Patricia Wallace, executive director of Concerned Youth Community Improvement, told the commission her group was concerned about the lack of suitable facilities for the city's youth recreation programs.

CYCI has wanted the school site for some time, and Mrs. Wallace reminded commissioners of the commission's earlier promises to renovate the gym for recreational use.

But now the city faces a financial bind, said Mayor Ramon Horta.

He expressed concerns the city could finance the initial renovations but be unable to pay ongoing monthly costs at the site.

"We'd be looking at a big light bill (with the gym air-conditioned)," said the Mayor.

"I don't want to spend $20,000, even if half of it is private contributions, and then six months down the road have to look these people in the face and tell them 'We spent $10,000 of your tax dollars to renovate this building and now

Pahokee gets over seven inches in 24 hours

By CHIP NEWTON

It rained in Pahokee Monday morning.
And Monday afternoon.
And Monday evening.
And Monday night.

Seven inches, in fact, according to two of three rain gauges monitored by East Beach Water Control District.

Two gauges recorded 7.31 and 7.32 inches while, the third recorded 6.5 inches in the period between Monday and Tuesday mornings.

That's about seven inches too much, according to Pahokee City Manager Ken Schenck.

Mr. Schenck said that the city had received so much rain all summer, "There's no place for it to go but to stay here at the surface."

Some of it stayed at the home of Ophelia Williams, who lives on Seminole Court.

Ms. Williams said her living room was flooded. "And the kitchen, the bedrooms, and the closets. Our homes are uninhabitable," she said, adding that she and her neighbors had not been able to flush toilets since Monday.

Doretha Murray, also of Seminole Court, said homeowners in the area had been on the telephone trying to get help since mid-day Monday. She said the group had called the FHA, the city, county, and the contractor who built the homes, all to no avail.

"They told us they'd finish the drainage when they build some more homes on the next block," she said.

A rain gauge in Canal Point recorded 8.00 inches.

Pahokee commission approves final budget

By CHIP NEWTON
SUN Staff

The Pahokee City Commission last Tuesday night voted final approval for the city's 1992 - 1993 budget.

Using the rollback millage rate of 6.843, the total budget is $2,276,621, based on revenues in the same amount.

Public Safety is the biggest budget item, with $1,136,596, and general government is second with $485,677.

Other expenditures listed in budget documents are:

$303,183 for culture and recreation;

$140,894 for transportation;

$121,384 for debt service;

$88,887 for fleet service.

Commissioners also approved a budget of $1,796,092 for the Enterprise Fund (Public Utilities Department) and $106,500 for the campground/marina facility and $485,224 for garbage/solid waste collection and disposal.

The commission also adopted an ordinance amending the city's code regarding mobile homes and recreational vehicles.

The ordinance allows "upgrade" replacement of deteriorating mobile homes in mobile home parks which were lawful on September 1, 1979, but have since been rezoned or reclassified.

In other business, Mayor Horta said he had received a number of complaints about water bills.

Mr. Schenck replied that there were several factors contributing to the higher bills reported by residents, including late meter readings due to inclement weather.

Mr. Schenck said he had made "adjustments" to the bills of residents "where appropriate."

"If those individuals (with water bill complaints) will come see me, we will address each case," he said.

New legislation passed - Crime victims get more rights

Legislation giving crime victims more rights as their cases travel through the court system becomes law today.

The new law, written by Palm Beach County Victim Services Coordinator Denny Abbott, gives victims the right to a speedy trial and mandates the juvenile courts notify victims of all crucial stages dealing with their case.

Prior to this law being enacted, the court system guaranteed the accused the right to a speedy trial, but not the victims of crime. Many cases have taken years to work their way through the courts.

There are about 20 states with laws pertaining to the victim's right to a speedy trial.

The new law also addresses the rights of victims while their cases are going through the juvenile court system. Approximately 30 percent of all crimes in Florida are committed by juvenile offenders. Abbott says many times the victims of juvenile crimes never get a chance to appear in court because most of these cases never make it to a formal disposition hearing. The majority are disposed of at arraignment and victims don't have the right to be heard.

The new law mandates that victims of juvenile crimes are notified of all hearings dealing with their case.

Senator Robert Weiler of Boca Raton sponsored the bill in the Florida Senate, and Representative Marian Lewis of North Palm Beach sponsored it in the Florida House of Representatives.

This is not a lake...This man, Willie James Brown, is chasing catfish on the street in front of his house. His house is on Seminole Court in Pahokee where more than seven inches of rain fell Monday, overwhelming area drainage systems.
Mr. Williams caught a nice catfish, about 15 inches, according to his neighbors.

Museum board will pursue private funding for land acquisition

By BRENDA BUNTING
SUN Editor

They will not give up on their desire to own two acres of land on Martin Luther King Boulevard, say officials for the Zora Neale Hurston Roof Garden Museum.

"I want to see us get that land because it is the ideal location for the museum," said Cartheda Konchellah, museum president and executive director. The land is located across the street from Lake Shore Middle School.

The board held a press conference Monday to say they reject the County Commission's directive that they move into the Lake Shore Civic Center.

The museum would have to share the facility with the Boys and Girls Club of America, if the city decides to let that organization use part of the center.

Mrs. Konchellah said the Civic Center space they would be allotted is only slightly larger than the area they are now using at The Meeting Place on SW 4th Street.

The museum board made a request for a $100,000 grant from the County Commission to purchase the land. County commissioners voted 5-1 last week to deny the grant.

They suggested the museum use part of the civic center in conjunction with the Boys and Girls Club of America.

County Commissioner Ken Foster said he at first supported the land acquisition, when Mrs. Konchellah told him the purchase price was $62,000.

"Suddenly," he said, "the price jumped to $100,000."

"I supported the museum throughout, and I still support the museum," said Mr. Foster, "but you know how difficult it is to get funds for the Glades. I have to be very careful what I ask for."

Mr. Foster said the Boys and Girls Club has been looking for new facilities and this seemed to be the ideal solution.

"This may be a way we can all win," Mr. Foster said.

Mrs. Konchellah said when she approached Mr. Foster concerning support for the grant, she had hoped the purchase price would be $62,000.

"I offered them (EPC) $62,000 and they did not accept. Then $75,000," she said.

The museum paid for an appraisal on the property and it was appraised at $86,000.

The land is owned by Everglades Progressive Citizens (EPC). Mrs. Konchellah is a stockholder in the corporation which she says her father founded. But, she says, it is in receivership and is defunct.

"My father was the founder of Everglades Progressive Citizens," she said, "and when he passed away in 1979 I inherited some of his stock."

The corporation had a $2 million court judgment levied against it after two women were burned in an apartment fire.

Mrs. Konchellah said the corporation had assets of approximately $900,000, "so even after they liquidate the assets there will be no money left," she said.

"My stock is worthless."

Mrs. Konchellah said the museum board will begin to pursue private options to purchase the land for the museum.

At the September 8 Belle Glade Commission meeting, Mrs. Konchellah submitted 1,137 petition signatures supporting the museum's request for the grant and opposing the museum's proposed location in the civic center.

A petition was signed by 99 citizens opposing the county grant to the Hurston Museum to purchase the land.

In a 17-page press release, Mrs. Konchellah outlined the sequences of events that led up to the county's rejection of the grant.

all of a sudden we have to either shut it down or give it to somebody else."

"I say, how can we look these kids in the face and say we don't want to put an investment into our future?" replied Ms. Wallace.

"Charity begins at home." Mrs. Wallace said she believed the proposed recreation facility would be self-supporting and she presented acts and figures she said represented Canal Point's experience renting out its county parks and recreation facility.

"It's rented out nearly every weekend to people from the Glades."

"The county makes money on it, the law enforcement officers hired for security make money. "If we had those same facilities here, those people would prefer to stay home" she said.

Commissioner John Norman noted that the commission was involved in a discussion about the operations and maintenance of a facility that doesn't exist, and numbers that we don't have in front of us," and suggested that commissioners instruct City Manager Schenck to "bring us back something to look at" regarding proposed expenses.

"Then let's argue about facts" he said.

Commissioner Singletary suggested the recreation committee bring the commission a recommendation "as to how they see the gym being self supported."

Steve Baumgartner, president of the Pahokee Chamber of Commerce, told the commission the chamber's 7:30 a.m. October 1 breakfast topic was the old high school and invited the commission to attend.

The breakfast will be held at Everglades Memorial Hospital's cafeteria.

"There's obviously a lot of interest in the building, the grounds," he said.

"The chamber is concerned, I think, that we either use it or we tear it down" he added.

Commissioners instructed Mr. Schenck to schedule a workshop to discuss the proposals and report back to the commission.

A press conference was held last Saturday by members of the Glades Branch of the NAACP to call for the resignation of Belle Glade City Manager. From left is First Vice President Robert Walker, Interim President Larry Konchellah and Retha Blake.

Harrelle has not made an effort to recruit industries and companies to the area.

"He has failed miserably in this area," Konchellah said.

As an example, he cited the issue of the Surface Water Improvement and Management plan (SWIM).

"This is one such issue that the city manager has not consulted the black community on, in spite of the grower's estimation that 15,000 jobs may be lost."

"Belle Glade has a 60 percent black population," Mr. Konchellah said.

"It is therefore reasonable to expect that a large majority of the total jobs lost may disproportionately affect the black population."

"This would be disastrous."

being called incompetent and inefficient in our jobs."

Mr. Lowrey's speech got a standing ovation from city employees and applause from a packed audience.

Commissioners Bill Bailey, Dan Bythwood, Vice Mayor Steve Weeks and Mayor Happy Tucker also expressed their support of Mr. Harrelle.

Commissioner Harma Miller declined to address the issue, saying the NAACP has not approached the commission as of yet to ask for Mr. Harrelle's resignation.

Mr. Bythwood read a prepared statement saying that he was not at the NAACP meeting where they called for the city managers resignation. He said it came out in some newspaper that he and Cartheda Konchellah had asked for the recall.

"I decided nothing. I said nothing about Mr. Harrelle."

Mr. Bythwood said he had a good working relationship with the city manager. "This is the first city manager

"The NAACP does not speak for me. I, as a commissioner, have nothing against the NAACP and I will work with the City Manager Lomax Harrelle because we work very well together."

Vice Mayor Weeks told Mr. Harrelle "I've got to applaud you. Two weeks ago they wanted to cut your salary in half. This week, everybody loves you."

NAACP board is calling for the resignation of Belle Glade's city manager, is not a registered voter in the City of Belle Glade.

He said he feels this is not relevant to the NAACP's stand asking for Mr. Harrelle's resignation, although he says he has felt bad that he has not been able to participate in local elections.

"I look forward to the day I can vote," he said. "I feel really bad about it. It's been a very big struggle for me."

Mr. Konchellah has criticized the city in its hiring practices, saying the city manager has hired unqualified white candidates for positions where black candidates were more qualified.

He applied for the Assistant to the City Manager's position six months ago. He did not get the job.

Virginia Bullock, Administrator for Human Resources for the city, said it is not required that city employees be a U.S. citizen if they have the proper papers. Those include a social security card, a green card or a brown card.

The public relations office of the NAACP in Baltimore, Maryland said the only requirement to be president of a chapter of the NAACP is to be a member of the organization for six months.

Mr. Konchellah is currently the senior counselor for the Department of Labor, Division of Rehabilitation.

He is on the board of the Katherine Price Foundation and active in the Palm Beach County School system where he has three children attending.

His wife, Cartheda, is the Executive Director for the Zora Neale Hurston Roof Garden Museum, Inc.

officers say the trio left. Once they were back on SR 80, PBCSO deputies attempted to do a traffic stop to catch the thieves.

They fled and were chased down old SR 80 to Sam Senter Road. They were stopped on Airport Road west of Belle Glade after being chased by deputies, tactical units, detectives and by the PBCSO helicopter.

A 1980 Ford pickup truck they were in was impounded because it was used in the commission of a felony.

The three suspects were found to be in possession of hammers, crow bars, and skeleton master keys.

Det. Haller said his men have been putting in extra hours trying to catch the thieves.

They've had eight surveillance teams watching some of the farms for the past few weeks.

"We would go to work when most people were getting off work and go home when others were just going to their jobs," he said.

The teams were made up of deputies, detectives, vice agents and tactical squad agents from West Palm Beach.

Officers have recovered some of the stolen property and last Tuesday farmers were sifting through the recovered items to find their possessions.

Some of the recovered gasoline came from Tailman Sugar Corporation. It was recognized by sheriff's detectives because Tailman dyes their gasoline bright red.

Det. Russ said some of the items stolen included welders, hand tools, power tools, telephones, gasoline, office equipment, chemicals and other miscellaneous items.

He said more charges may be filed against the three men. They are currently in the Palm Beach County Jail under $3,000 bond.

Speak Out if you care

I'm a concerned citizen in Belle Glade and I'm worried about the City Manager and Commissioners trying to take the firefighters away from us.

I know for myself and my family, we've had to call on the ambulance before. We've had to call 911 and the firefighters got there first before the rescue team.

I don't see how the city can take it away from us when we pay the taxes.

Please be at that meeting if you're concerned citizens in Belle Glade. Especially if you're one of the ones who has had fire rescue come to your home and take care of you in your time of need. Editor's note: This caller was referring to the meeting held October 28.

Callers might want to remember that if they want to encourage others to attend an upcoming meeting, they need to call in by the Monday before the event is to take place.

Behavior was unbecoming

In reference to the Glades Day/Christian Day football game I would first like to say I'm a former Glades Day football player and state champion.

I would like to commend the Gators for winning, but I would also like to note that Glades Day never won a state championship with the ethics that were displayed at this game.

There was whooping, taunting, and the fans booing Christian Day when they came in from the half-time.

I was really embarrassed. That is not what all the state championships were won on. They were won with class.

Although another team might treat you one way the year before or whatever, it does not give you the right to do the same thing to them.

This is not what winning's all about. I'd just like to state that.

I am glad they won, but they need to show a little bit of class in winning and cut out the taunting, the booing.

Editor's note: Our Staff writer Chip Newton was at this game. He said he does not recall the problems this caller noticed. Possibly it was a small percentage of those attending and not the majority.

We don't need another museum

I want to Speak Out on the museum they're trying to build here. (Ed. note: This caller is referring to the Zora Neale Hurston Roof Garden Museum.)

Our economic times in the city do not warrant that kind of expenditure for just one group. We have so many different groups in this area. We are in need of more essential things. I hope that it is tabled for a long time and that we don't have to worry with this matter for a while.

There's a lot of need in this community and we do not need a museum when we already have one.

Caller says Belle Glade's City Manager hires his friends

I would like to refute the comments of the NAACP against Mr. Lomax Harrelle.

He in no way shows prejudices in his hiring of friends for special positions.

When he hired his friend to be Assistant Public Works Director, he replaced a white city employee.

Part of the problem was the city employee (who was let go) was demoted to a position lower than he was before he was promoted to Assistant Public Works Director.

The man hired to replace him had no experience other than having driven an LP gas delivery truck.

And so it goes.

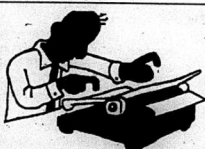

Editor's note: I spoke with Mr. Harrelle about this subject and he said his extensive background in the area of public works prompted his decision to replace the former Assistant Public Works Director with someone who was willing to accept the challenges and responsibilities which lay ahead.

He added that his long-time association with the present Assistant Public Works Director made him confident this person could accomplish the many diverse and challenging situations facing the city.

Pro-life rally planned

Dear Editor:

As I reflect on the Pahokee Life Chain (planned for Sunday, Oct. 4 from 2 p.m. to 3 p.m. at the corners of Bacom Point Road and South Lake Avenue) several things come to mind.

First, I want to say I have invested my time and effort in that which I feel God has called me to do.

Secondly, Florida has the fourth largest abortion rate in the country. One baby every 20 seconds is either torn and sucked out of its womb or saline is absorbed through its tiny lungs and digestive tract. Then its precious skin is burned off by the high concentration of salt, like brine working on a pickle.

This slow poisoning process takes from one to six hours to kill the baby. Sometimes living, breathing, struggling babies are delivered. It is then either drowned in a bucket of water or discarded like garbage, left to die.

Our savior, who loves these little children threatened by abortion, commands us to speak up for the defenseless.

As stated in Psalms 10:16-18 and Proverbs 24:11, Jesus is worthy and by his death on the cross, His "little ones" are worthy also.

Where are we going to find a source that is powerful enough to overcome this holocaust? There is, I believe, only one source capable of reversing the flood of innocent blood being shed, not only abroad, but right here in the Glades. That source is Jesus and His church.

The hidden treasure of the pro-life movement is the church. Jesus came to give life in abundance (John 10:10). Without question Jesus Christ is the "life source" of the pro-life movement.

His life flows through the church to society. Because Jesus is the light of the world (Matt. 9:11), Christians are the light of the world (Matt. 5:13).

Since Jesus came to give life abundantly Christians are the primary source to reverse this devastation.

Although there are no quick and easy answers to the abortion holocaust, we do need a unified action by the church, one that energizes the church to be the salt and light for our society.

This is where the Life Chain plays a vital role in the pro-life movement. It is an effective strategy for motivating the church to take an active role in the pro-life movement.

The life chain concept was a God-given tool to help thousands of Christians take that important first step in the defense of human life. Won't you please take that first step?

In His Service,
Sandy Otto

Clinton can lead this country

Dear Editor:

As a mediocre former student of the Palm Beach County School system and Palm Beach Junior College, it was exciting to be accepted as a law student at the University of Arkansas.

I was overwhelmed by the demands of a new law student - the tough study regimen, armloads of reading, tons of pressure, and a modicum of intimidation.

As a young law professor, Bill Clinton served as a helpful, serious, encouraging mentor and a compassionate guide to callow law students.

Clinton was an intellectual beacon of hope in a dark harbor of overwhelming demands.

What a superior person, teacher, and inspiration Bill Clinton was in my life. It is possible he can lead a confused, frustrated, aimless country in a similar fashion? I have no doubt.

Sincerely,

Gun control doesn't work

Dear Editor:

In your September 17th issue, on your editorial page, I came across a letter from Mrs. Sarah Brady of Handgun Control Inc.

In her letter, she pulled out all of the emotional levers. She mentioned Bobby and Jack Kennedy, Dr. King, John Lennon and others.

What the people who have this mindset do not realize is that gun control not only does not work, it will never work.

Cities with the most draconian gun regulations are the ones with the worst problems, such as Washington D.C. and New York.

In the recent riots in Los Angeles, the people were abandoned to the burning, looting, mobs. The L.A. police either wouldn't or couldn't protect them.

People rushed to the gun shops, but the California legislature had passed a 15 day waiting period before buying a gun. Therefore, the people who had guns could defend themselves, but the majority of the people were at the mercy of the mob.

Gun control activists state that the Constitution does not say that the people may be armed, but only a militia.

If they really believed that, they would not have legislation going through the House of Representatives to have the "embarrassing" second amendment repealed.

Remember it states that the right of the people to bear arms shall not be infringed upon.

Instead of attacking the firearms of the law-abiding citizens, the law should concentrate more on the offenders.

We can not continue slapping them on the wrists so that they can do it again.

Feeding troops an experience

Dear Editor:

Now that our troops from the 79th Battalion have returned back to Ft. Stewart, Georgia we would like to say on behalf of OUR troops, Margaret Strachan, Ethel Smith, Robin Banks and Henrietta Johnson, thanks to the many supporters and contributors who made our last "Feed the Troops" a big success.

On Saturday, Sept. 20 at the South Florida Fairgrounds, it was a time for fun, laughter, handshakes, appreciation and exchanging of addresses, goodbyes and photos with everlasting memories.

To work side-by-side with the troops sorting, lifting, unloading trucks and clothing was an honor, and especially since these were the same heroes who had served in the Gulf War.

We considered this opportunity a privilege and the most rewarding experience to feed our troops as a bonus for the long hours and hard work they endured inside of their own country helping the people in South Dade County.

To the supporters - you made it possible to feed over 300 troops and volunteers. Hats off to Foodland & Sam Boris, Aepelgren Farms, Jeannette Rawls, Evelyn Warner, Annie Fryer, Mettie Mullins, Eunice Laws, Louise Davis and Ruth Butler from Ft. Pierce.

Sincerely,
Margaret Strachan and Henrietta Johnson

Explosion Emocional

Editor's note: This week, Gaspar is writing about negative feelings and how they can disrupt our lives if we do not deal with them. He urges people to be honest with themselves and ask for God's assistance.

Los sentimientos negativos acumulados al andar, frustraciones, imprevistos, desavenencias, tragados sin masticar, son como bombas de tiempo dispuestas a estallar al menor estímulo.

El alivio que puede proporcionar esa explosión emocional con su carga de desahogo es de insignificante valor, comparado con el daño que puede causar a los demás y a nosotros mismos que, dueños de nuestras emociones, nos convertimos en sus esclavos, al hacer y decir cosas de las que nos sentimos arrepentidos una vez recordada la serenidad. Porque las palabras quedan, y las acciones quedan, y el deterioro de la salud queda.

La serenidad, la paciencia, el equilibrio, son virtudes que hay que cultivar. Requieren fe, entusiasmo, pasión, arrojo. No hay virtudes donde los actos desmenten las palabras, ni existen en donde la intención se arrastra. Tenemos que ser honestos con nosotros mismos, sin caer en esa melancolía y nefasta compasión del que tiene complejo de víctima: librenos Dios de los hipocritamente humildes.

Como ayuntamiento al atormentado corazón del que no sabe que es mejor, si asimilar pacientemente los altibajos del diario vivir o explotar hacia afuera la ira. Como encontrar un punto de equilibrio y de bienestar interior? La respuesta esta dentro de nosotros.

Lo primero es dedicar un tiempo a la meditación para encontrarnos con nosotros mismos. Tenemos que aceptar que no siempre lo de uno es lo correcto y que lo que hacen, dicen y piensan los demás es lo equivocado. Ser amables con los demás compromete a los otros a que lo sean con uno, y ello encierra como un compromiso de respeto mutuo.

Y si todo lo señalado fuera poco, si nuestras reacciones fueran secuelas de interperancias acumuladas desde temprana edad, invoquemos la ayuda de Dios. Con su auxilio se disipan todas las dudas.

THANK YOU

Hurricane victims are served a hot meal by U.S. Sugar volunteers at their food service facility set up by Dade County Emergency Management personnel at Cutler Ridge Mall. U.S. Sugar served more than 2,000 meals a day for 15 days following the storm, a total of more than 31,000 meals.

To U.S. Sugar Employees, Families and Friends:

A little over a month ago, a devastating hurricane hit our neighbors to the South, destroying thousands of homes and businesses and disrupting the lives of many more thousands of people. Our hearts went out to our friends and neighbors in Dade County, and the Glades area communities reacted immediately to try to ease some of the misery and assist in relief efforts.

I am particularly proud of the actions of hundreds of the employee-owners of U.S. Sugar Corporation during this crisis. For more than three weeks, starting the day after the storm, many of you put aside the tools of farming to do what farm families have done since our nation began—help neighbors in need.

Bubba Wade, our vice president of administrative services, volunteered to head up the efforts of U.S. Sugar employees. He spent almost a month, day and night in Dade County, working with relief officials and organizing our work.

Employees by the hundreds volunteered to help. The field cooks who prepare meals for our cane cutters during harvest season prepared hot meals in Clewiston each day for victims and rescue workers. Drivers transported the meals more than 100 miles to South Dade where they were served by other employees, spouses of employees and the Ladies of the Lake. More than 2,000 meals a day, or 31,000 total, were served. Other employees carried tens of thousands of gallons of our water to those without water—including hospitals and kidney dialysis centers. Others transported and serviced 126 portable toilets and several electric generators. Our thanks go to Evercane Refinery which provided many 5,000 gallon water tankers and the trucks to haul them.

Agriculture and heavy equipment crews manned tractors, payloaders and other heavy equipment and cleared more than 20 square miles of the most heavily damaged areas—opening roads, freeing people trapped in their houses, clearing land of the storm's debris.

I traveled to the area several times and saw with my own eyes the devastation caused by Hurricane Andrew. I saw the pain and suffering in the faces of its victims. I also saw the compassion and dedication of farmers as they extended a helping hand to our neighbors in need. Several hundred employees and volunteers traveled to South Dade, while the rest of you worked here at home to support the relief efforts. All of you should be equally as proud of the significant contributions that were made. It was a long three weeks for all of you, but I know that every mile driven and every hour worked was equaled by a smile, a thank you, or in some cases, tears of gratitude.

I want to thank each one of you for your selfless dedication and compassion. You are the reason we can all take pride in being a part of the U.S. Sugar family. I am proud to be associated with each of you.

Sincerely,

J. Nelson Fairbanks

U.S. Sugar volunteers clear fallen trees on the grounds of Girl Scout Camp Mahachie in South Dade County. The company cleared two camps, Mahachie and Choe, for the Girl Scout Council of Tropical Florida.

William S. White, Chairman of the Board, Nelson Fairbanks, President and CEO, and Malcolm S. "Bubba" Wade, Vice President of Administrative Services, of U.S. Sugar, confer with John Hoyle, President and CEO of St. Luke Hospital in Kentucky, at the site of a field hospital in Homestead. U.S. Sugar delivered 12 portable toilets and a 100 kw generator to supply power for the field hospital.

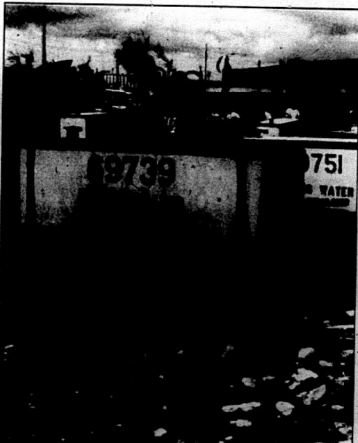

Rescue workers are served meals by U.S. Sugar at the South Dade Government Center. U.S. Sugar volunteers prepared meals each day in Clewiston and drove them more than 100 miles to South Dade to help victims of Hurricane Andrew and to support other rescue crews.

U.S. Senator Bob Graham confers with U.S. Sugar Vice President Malcolm "Bubba" Wade and Capt. Ellery Gray at a field medical facility in Homestead. Wade led the efforts of more than 300 U.S. Sugar employees and Glades area volunteers who were directly involved in hurricane relief efforts.

U.S. Sugar crews clear a road in South Dade County, a portion of more than 20 square miles of road cleared by company volunteers in the first weeks following Hurricane Andrew.

Since drinking water was one of the immediate major needs in the devastated areas, U.S. Sugar brought in twenty-three 60-gallon water wagons normally used in agricultural operations to supply drinking water to victims at several distribution centers. The company also delivered 10,000 gallons of water to the Emergency Operations Center at Cutler Ridge two days after the storm.

After three weeks of aiding hurricane victims in Dade County, U.S. military units relieved U.S. Sugar volunteers so they could return to Clewiston to prepare for the harvest season. Here, the convoy of U.S. Sugar equipment forms on the Florida Turnpike.

Glades Day's Gators took on Lake Placid's Dragons Friday night at the Gator's field here and won.

The Gators quenched the Dragon's fire by being first on the scoreboard with a 41-yard touchdown run by #20, Jeff Goodale. The PAT attempt failed.

Neither team's offense could penetrate the other's end zone until the Dragons scored on a QB keeper followed by a good kick.

With 56 seconds remaining in the first half, Gator #24 Jeremy Lovell picked off a Lake Placid pass.

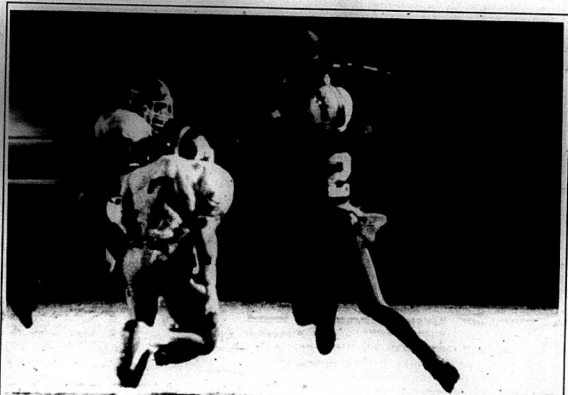

The Gators drove into Dragon territory but missed a field goal attempt and went into the locker room trailing 6 - 7.

Gator Head Coach, Mandy Perez said the team made some "emotional adjustments" at halftime.

It worked; in the second half, the Dragons did not score.

With 1:48 left in the third quarter quarterback Graham Chancey threw a 14-yard shot to Tommy King to move the Gators ahead 12 - 7.

The Dragons threw two additional interceptions and Chancey iced the cake with a fourth quarter TD run. Glades Day rushed 43 times for 312 yards compared with 77 yards in 32 carries for the Dragons, and had 106 yards in the air while Lake Placid had only 28.

Looks good now, but...Pahokee's Denorse Moeley goes up high to pull this one down for the Blue Devils, but the ball went through his fingers this time. Moeley caught two others for touchdowns.

Pahokee loses Friday 13-12

By CHIP NEWTON

SUN Staff

Coach Mark Kaczanowicz said his Pahokee High School Blue Devils "ad-libbed too much" in their loss Friday night to Atlantic High.

Undefeated going into the game, the boys in blue didn't look like a sixth-ranked team, wasting several scoring chances in the first two quarters.

Two over 40-yard touchdown catches in the first half, while exciting, were not enough to salvage the game for Pahokee.

After the game, coach K told the team "They (Atlantic) didn't win this game; You flat-out gave it to them."

Quarterback Terry Barber, who threw the two TD passes, also threw two interceptions, one of which, in the fourth quarter with 1:34 remaining, was a high lob to get rid of the ball and was caught by Atlantic's Bo Laguerre on Pahokee's 19-yard line.

The entire second half performance by the Blue Devils was lackluster at best, but maybe the thrill of being 2 - 0 and state ranked before the game was too much for the team. An outstanding halftime show by both schools was marred by another performance.

Not either band's performance, those were excellent.

The fans were not.

After a fine performance by the Atlantic High band, the Pahokee fans boomed.

The Atlantic band was great. The music was great.

The choreography was great. Everything was great.

And, at the conclusion, more than half the Pahokee fans rose to their feet and booed the Atlantic High School halftime show.

Atlantic's band director, Louis St. Laurent, would say only that it was the first time he'd ever been booed; he declined further comment.

Nancy Woolcock, Pahokee's Athletic Director, said the fans always boo bands from elsewhere.

"Our styles are very different; we play Top 40 tunes; we're not just another marching band. It's (booing) always done. It's not appropriate, but that's how our fans operate," she said.

"That's the way things go."

One of two winners...Osceola Farms won the safety award for the Cane Cutter Division from the Florida Sugar Cane League last Friday. Left to right are Jose Perez, Osceola, Jose Sanchez with OSHA, and Oscar Schneider, personnel director and labor consultant for Osceola Farms. U.S. Sugar won in two divisions, agricultural and industrial. This was the 26th Annual Safety Conference.

Safety awards presented

"Hurricane Andrew has shown clearly the non-compliance with safety codes can be disastrous," Jose Sanchez told workers at the Annual Safety Conference.

The conference was held at the Dolly Hand Cultural Arts Center in Belle Glade to honor workers and mills with the lowest frequency/severity rate for occupational injuries.

The awards were presented in three categories: Cane Cutter, Agricultural and Industrial (mill/shop). The Florida Sugar Cane League has been sponsoring the safety awards to companies with the best safety and injury record for 26 years.

This year's awards were presented to Osceola Farms Company for the Cane Cutter Division; United States Sugar Corporation for the Agricultural Division; and United States Sugar Corporation for Industrial (mill/shop) Division.

According to Andy Rackley, vice president and general manager of the League, criteria for the awards are based on the frequency rate for lost-time occupational injuries and illnesses during the 12-month period from May 1 through April 30. Calculations include workers from all departments within each company.

Members of the Safety Committees are: Andres Panjuri of Okelanta Corp. (chairman); Murray Brinson, Frank Polhill and Nick Smith of U.S. Sugar Corp.; Gene Dodgen of A. Duda & Sons; Carlos Rionda of Osceola Farms Co.; and Oscar Schneider of Okelanta Corp.

"In the 1960's," Mr. Sanchez said, "occupational accidents and illnesses were increasing at an alarming rate." Mr. Sanchez is the Area Director for the Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA).

In 1971, Congress passed new laws regulating industries. The office of OSHA oversees the compliance with those laws.

Alimony Open golf tourney set

Golf tournaments have been held to raise money for a lot of different causes, and now a Florida golfer has decided to hold one to pay off his alimony.

Ron Simmons, of West Palm Beach, has reserved the PGA National Championship Golf Course at Palm Beach Gardens for Saturday, October 24, for an 8:30 a.m. golf tournament. There will be a shotgun start for the event.

Mr. Simmons is inviting everyone in favor of legal reform to play in the tourney. Mr. Simmons says "The only people who really win in divorce courts are the lawyers." Simmons cited a string of bad post-divorce experiences, all costly, in explaining why he's trying this unique fundraiser.

The Alimony Open Golf Tournament is open to both men and women. Those who do not play golf are invited to join as "caddies." Non-players at the tournament will be called caddies even though many of them will be there to help at the registration table.

An auction will follow the tourney. Funds raised will be used to help pay the cost of Simmons' divorce.

For more information, or to register, call Mr. Simmons at (407) 687-1808.

Major Kent Thompson, boating safety coordinator with the Florida Marine Patrol, urges all parents and boat owners to use care in selecting the proper devices for their youngsters.

"Read the label to make sure the measurements are appropriate for your child's size and weight," Thompson said. "To see if the PFD fits properly, fasten it around the child and lift at the shoulders. If it gives more than three inches, it's too big. It's better to go to a slightly smaller size than to have one that's too big," he added.

"We can't stress enough the importance of selecting a high quality, proper-fitting device," Thompson said.

Collared PFDs are recommended for those children who have a fear of the water, and high-visibility colors (such as fluorescents) should be considered when making a selection.

Whenever possible, PFDs should be tested in shallow water to see how they handle prior to any boating trips.

Maintenance and storage of the PFDs is important, too. The devices must be in good, serviceable condition at all times, and must be readily accessible in an emergency. They should not be stowed in plastic bags, in locked or closed compartments, or have other gear stowed on top of them.

For more information concerning the new law regulating use of PFDs, or for other boating safety regulations, contact the Florida Marine Patrol at (904) 488-5600 or the Florida Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission at (904) 488-6257.

would be used to assist elderly citizens to improve their lives.

Florida is offering The Seniorly
Program. In 1992, Florida provides
